RANGER RESCUE

A Joyful 'Toon by Mike Waters

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

— Isaiah 52:7 NIV

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had. Romans 15:5

Minister’s Letter June 2018: ENCOURAGEMENT!

If ever I need encouragement I turn to the scriptures. There is virtually no situation that cannot be improved by “pondering God’s thoughts after Him” (as Johannes Kepler put it when speaking about the universe). God prompts me to ask, how many of us honestly share our burdens and find great encouragements with God and in the reading of His holy word? What is going on in your life? Are any relationships difficult or broken? Are you weary or sore? Are you dissatisfied regularly? Negative things usually steal from you the joy and delight which God has for you. They also can dull us spiritually. Yet since God’s mercies are NEW EVERY morning, I am asking if you want to live with the reality of this? How is your walk with God? Is it non-existent or not too close at this time? Then action is required. If it is good, then find two people to help in this respect. I personally am being greatly encouraged by God recently and currently. He is both my Father, and my King. As Father, He is the one who assures me of His perfect love, who wants me to know Him through revelation and directly in His presence, with the Holy Spirit’s help. As my king, He is the one who I owe everything to. So I want to serve Him and represent His kingdom on earth. This means as well as knowing Him personally, I want to share that knowledge and the experience of Him with others. Is God your Father and King in these respects? If not PLEASE let me know? I am setting aside time to help and support those who want to grow spiritually. Those who want to learn about discipleship and how to please God with their lives. To those who think they have not too much to offer God, I challenge you to discover how God will delight to enlist even you to make a difference in other peoples’ lives.

Maybe you are already an encourager? If so great, we need you to use your gifts. Share the things God wants you to help others to be encouraged in, to grow in, and to be grateful for the many provisions and promises which God had made, and will keep, if you trust in Him. My experience is that many people try lots of other things to sort out their lives:- tablets, drink, drugs, therapists, being a couch potato etc. Yet God is the source of true and lasting comfort: "Blessed by the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort;…our comfort is abundant through Christ." 2 Cor. 1:3, 5 Please make time to grow and to encourage others. Please pray for your church and its initiatives and strategic plans? You could very well be an important piece of the jigsaw. Working where God is at work. Gordon
COMMUNION ARRANGEMENTS and PASTORAL CARE

The Kirk Session has for some time been reviewing the arrangements for Communion and how we should provide pastoral care to the congregation.

It has been decided that the elders will no longer deliver communion cards and members will be invited to participate in Communion via the monthly Church magazine. This change will in no way affect your relationship with your elder providing pastoral care when required.

If you would like a visit, then your elder is available and should be your first point of contact. The Minister is also available to offer pastoral support as are members of the Pastoral Team: contact details are given in the magazine each month.

The Kirk Session has been encouraged in our review of arrangements for pastoral care by the knowledge that similar changes have been successfully implemented in other congregations. The Kirk Session has also been reviewing the role of members and is asking “Where do you sense that you are within the Church at this time”?

The Church currently has a “Live” and a “Supplementary” roll. The “Live” roll is for those members who are active within the church, attend worship on a regular basis and are involved in and support the life of the Church in some way.

The “Supplementary” roll is for those members who do not attend regular worship or are not actively involved in the life of the Church. If you are placed on this roll you are still able to receive pastoral visit when you require one. Any member can be moved back on to the “Live” roll if they so wish and should contact the Roll Keeper (Alan Low) or by email alanlow2811@hotmail.co.uk

One of the biggest changes to UK data privacy law comes into effect on 25 June 2018. The General Data Protection Regulation, also known as GDPR, means that you’ll have more control over how your data is used. We as Church take the responsibility for storing your information seriously and only use it for our own purposes in God’s service, however if you no longer wish to be on our data list please contact the roll keeper who can arrange for your details to be removed. If you wish to discuss these changes please contact your elder.

Yours in faith

Coffee Plus

Do you enjoy a blether and a cup of tea or coffee? Would you like the chance to meet some new people or get to know others better? You may live on your own and want some company or perhaps you need some time away from your daily routine. Then this new get-together for adults could be for you.

Coffee Plus will meet on Friday mornings from 10.30 until midday in the Eden Room at the church. If stairs are a problem there is a lift to the first floor. The main aim is to provide a place to chat, get to know each other better and find out more about the Christian faith together.

As Coffee Plus is a new concept for our church, suggestions as to what happens during Coffee Plus time would be welcome. We will be having a short ‘pause for thought’ at each meeting but at the moment other ideas are most welcome. Refreshments will be available from 10.30, bring a friend and something to do if you want more than a blether. We hope to have weekly get-togethers until Friday 22 June, depending on interest.

Speak to Alison Mitchell for more information or to offer help.

‘Bridge to Ridge’ Friday 15th June
Coastal walk and visit to Ridge at Backlands

You are invited to a sociable evening, starting with a walk from Bridge to Nowhere and ending at Backlands Garden (off Dunbar High Street). This will be a chance to share our enjoyment and knowledge of this lovely stretch of coast before visiting and hearing about inspirational developments with the Ridge at the Backlands Garden.

Hot/cold drinks and light refreshments provided at Backlands Hut.

7.30pm – Walkers meet at Bridge to Nowhere
8.30pm – Non-walkers meet at Backlands Garden

FREE event organised by Sustaining Dunbar with a warm welcome to all-comers.

Just turn up, no need to book.

The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing. Zephaniah 3:17

To be a Christian without prayer is no more possible than to be alive without breathing.

Article Series 9 (pt 3) Prayer For Encouragement

Please pray before you read Romans 1:8-17 For their, and our benefit.
Thanks to those who have let me know that they will journey with us - more welcome any time (revgstev@gmail.com) or phone (01368 865482)
Paul now begins to unfold the purpose he has in writing: to pray for them and to bring encouragement; to preach/teach the gospel; and to implore God to impart gifts in order that the church will enjoy a fruitful spiritual harvest.
v8 rightly begins with thankfulness to God. In doing so Paul addresses God as “my God” to engender the idea that being a Christian is a personal relationship with God. There are a multitude of things we ought to be grateful to God for and no doubt Paul was thanking God for gracious blessings already received in His service to those who read this letter. He is praying for all Christians, many he will not know personally and he encourages them by affirming that their faith is being reported all over the world. There is obviously value in doing so...
The NIV Bible misses the Greek link “for” which Paul has as he follows on in v9, 10. So, Paul is boldly saying God is our witness seeing all the prayers I have constantly prayed for you. And now Paul will be coming to visit and preach to them too, if it is God’s will.

In v11, Paul clearly longs to engage with them for their benefit. To make them stronger spiritually through spiritual gifts. The word ‘gift’ here is the Greek word “Charisma”, which is mainly used for special spiritual gifts, given by the Holy Spirit, like healing, prophesy, miracles etc. but it can also be used in a wider sense that God gives all kinds of gifts to believers. Either way Paul wants to see them grow spiritually. Further Paul declares a mutual benefit and encouragement in working out our faith together in v12.
If they did not know of his strong desire to visit them, they will know now v13.
Despite having been prevented previously, he is expecting a fruitful visit soon.
When God is at work it is fruitful and obvious to those who are living out the Christian faith personally. Paul goes off in a tangent thinking about Gentiles (non-Jews). Paul believes that he is indebted to all, so much, that he must offer the most precious gift he has to remove his debt. Sharing the gospel with all, and building up others in Christian faith is an obligation, and a privilege (bringing them God’s wisdom). It is not an option v14. He continues this eagerly in v15.
v16,17 are potent, summing up God’s salvation plan. Some people look down on our faith but we are not to be ashamed of it. For it can change foolish thinking into wisdom and freedom in God’s power. It transforms us from a negative stage to a positive one; saved from wrath 5:9, from futility 1 Peter 1:18 etc. This salvation is for everyone who truly believes the gospel. It is by the gospel that God imparts faith which permits this belief. It is God’s power and righteousness at work which can enable our righteousness. Paul then drives it home by quoting scripture, “The righteous will LIVE by FAITH” (Hab 2:4) So how Christians live should be very noticeable and attractive to others.

Hoping that encouragement is yours and is being shared also!    Gordon

Communion

In order to keep accurate records of our Communicants, the Kirk Session is encouraging the congregation to hand in their Communion cards in the tray in the narthex. If you do not have one, can you please take one and place in the tray, or fill in the sign-in sheet at the table.

The next Communion is Sunday 3rd June 2018

DPC Verse for 2018
He says, ‘Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.’ Psalm 46:10
I'm sitting writing this, while the highlights from the Royal wedding are on the telly, it's the price I have to pay for getting to watch the cup final earlier!

Of course, whatever your opinion is of the dress, the flowers, the choir, the Queen's hat, I could go on and on and on.......... it is always nice to see a young couple pledging their lives to each other, in love.

Love is a word we use every day, whether it's just expressing our like for a certain food or film, or telling someone what they mean to us.

We all have an understanding of what the word means but let’s take it to another level, God's level. This goes far beyond our wildest dreams and understanding.

We all crave love, we want to have a special bond with someone, we want acceptance, popularity, success, happiness, we want to love and be loved. We can work hard at trying to achieve the love of someone else: be cool, be funny, be smart, act casually, dress well, show off, get noticed!!!

So, if we can try to impress someone in order to win their love, how do we win God’s love?

Many people believe we have to earn God’s love and live in fear that they might not be worthy of his love. We have so many issues, failings, problems. Our fellow humans don’t really like us, so how can God, who is perfect, love us??

The Bible is full of answers, but think about this verse:

1 John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us.

Consider what this really means for a moment. Do we have to win his attention through impressive deeds, sporting prowess, good looks? Can we earn his love through good deeds? No! We love him because he first loved us!!!

What an incredible truth, he loved us first!!!

Never feel you’re not worthy, never feel unloved, never feel alone, never feel insignificant, never forget, God loved you first!

Pray for those who feel unloved in their lives and in their homes.

Pray for those who feel that they are unworthy of God’s love.

Pray for those who feel that they have to earn his love and then spend the last part praying for yourself.

Blessings, Derek
June Prayer Letter by Douglas McClintick

Back in 2005 there was a march in Edinburgh for the movement ‘Make Poverty History’. It is a wonderful vision to have and is one that many people and organisations are continuing to dedicate their lives to. As Christians we are blessed with the knowledge that this vision will become a reality when Jesus Christ comes again. We thank you Father for your gift of salvation which allows us to receive the inheritance of a new poverty free world spent with you. In the interim we are thankful, Father God, for all the work people are doing to address this huge challenge.

Lord Jesus, we give thanks for the Basics Bank and the lifeline that it provides to people in our town who are struggling to make ends meet. We thank you Father for the opportunity that we have as a church through this ministry to share your love and to bring your kingdom into the community. We ask you Holy Spirit to work in the lives of those who come to the Basics Bank, attract them to the gospel so that they might receive gifts from you beyond just the physical items that the team provide. We hope they would leave each Wednesday encouraged and that there would be a time when they would not need Basics support. May you encourage people both within and outwith our congregation to be generous in supporting the mission so that we can continue to bless the those in our town who are in need.

Almighty God, we pray also for our partners in the Basics Bank, Edinburgh City Mission, as their work continues to grow with an ever increasing number of referrals. May they be blessed with staff to enable them to meet this increasing demand as they aim to be Jesus’ hands and feet within the city. We pray for their ministries including the care van which provides soup, food, hot drinks and encouragement for up to 60 homeless and vulnerable people a day. Show your love, Lord Jesus, to all who come to the van Jesus through the ECM volunteers and may they come to know you as their personal saviour. Finally we pray that as they search for ‘mission strengtheners’ to join their team, God would lead them to appoint the best people for the roles and for the growth of his kingdom.

Lord we pray also for Christians Against Poverty (CAP) as they strive to bring freedom and good news to the poor across the UK. We praise you for how you have blessed the faith of many, with the development of a strong debt centre network and a wide-ranging team of staff and volunteers. Thank you for their dedication to supporting people crippled by debt and low income.

Finally, we consider all those for whom the risk of starvation, thirst, disease and lack of shelter is a daily reality both at home and in countries around the world. Be present with them Lord in their sufferings and let them know your love and providence. May we be encouraged, Lord, to give what we can to support those poorer than ourselves and provide the aid they need to have a better quality of life. Help us not to harden our hearts, but to instead seek to love them in the way you taught us.

In Jesus’ Name, Amen
Connecting with our Community: Highlighting 'The Ridge'

Some of you will have heard of The Ridge (Single Social Enterprise) here in Dunbar. Perhaps you have strolled through the Backlands Garden just down from Garden Lane/up from the big Co-op? Here a piece of waste ground has been transformed into a walled garden where they are not only growing fruit and vegetables but also trainees, volunteers, plants for sale, demonstrations and arts projects. Crumbling garden walls have been rebuilt by volunteers under the supervision of Historic Scotland and people are being, trained in stonemasonry, gardening and so much more.

The Ridge Café, as well as being open to the public, also runs The Hungry Hatch free community meal every second Monday at 5pm and is open to all. There’s a real sense of friendship and community spirit on these nights and it’s a great way in which to get to know people. Sunny Soups is another Ridge project helping reduce food waste and feed hungry people. Unsold fruit, vegetables and herbs are donated by local shops including The Cooperative and The Crunchy Carrot and turned into soups, stewed fruit and purees. This is then available for anyone to take, absolutely free, from a freezer in the Bleachingfield Centre. Another arm of the Ridge provides training and support to help people find routes into further education, training and employment. The Ridge Foundations is an ambitious vision working to excavate Black Bull Close and eventually build a multi-purpose centre on the old foundations of the ruins there.

Partnering with The Ridge

Because we see the good that The Ridge are doing in our community we, at Basics Bank, have decided to partner with them on certain projects. Remember the Christmas Dinner? That was a joint venture with Basics Bank, the Ridge and the Rotary. Hannah of Sunny Soups helps people learn how to make nourishing soups at Dunbar Parish Halls on Fridays 11.30-2.30 and we also provide the venue for Sunny’s Kitchen once a month where people cook up a storm using food waste which would otherwise go to landfill. I was at the resulting delicious meal recently and I have to say the community spirit and banter was top notch!

So why the advert for The Ridge? God is already at work out there in our community doing so much good. Sometimes we only need to spot it, join in and bring some kingdom perspective. Opportunities abound for conversations, relationship forming and prayer. See whether or not the words from Isaiah 58 remind you of anyone

10 ‘...and if you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your night will become like the noonday.
11 The LORD will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame.

12 Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations; you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls,
